WHAT OUR CLIENTS HAVE TO SAY

"I was a skeptic. I was wrong. The editor clearly understood the content, and was not just able to catch typos and grammatical errors--all I originally hoped for--but was able to improve the flow of ideas. I will use your service again and I would be delighted if the editor who worked on this paper works on the next. Bravo!"

"I had to fix too much, even to the point where it wasn't necessary. It changed the intent of the text and took a lot of work to repair"

"The manuscript was returned with the "judgement after correction", I was given a severe opinion on the quality of English. 2 months ago, I had the same result, and I was asked to correct it again for free. It doesn't have to be free this time, but I would like you to pay attention to the quality."

"This was my first time using this service and was pleasantly surprised by how thoroughly the editor went through the manuscript. All the comments were clear and useful. Moreover, all the work was completed on schedule ."

EDITOR SPEAK

MB1645, United Kingdom

I began to work for Enago when their recruitment team contacted me on LinkedIn and asked me to attempt a test. A week later, they informed me through email that I had met their quality benchmarks and they would like to have me on board as an editor.

I was sent work a couple of weeks after the on boarding process was complete, and the work has been regular ever since. Communication from Recruitment, the Editing, and the Accounts team is excellent, with emails always being responded within a short time. All my queries are answered, which I have found very useful. The interface (online portal) is also very useful; most of the things you need to know about while working on an assignment are easily accessible and any further questions are answered through the chat box tool, where you can directly speak to members of the Project Management team (there is always someone there to answer your queries). The people who respond on the chat are always friendly, helpful and ready to answer any query.
