EDITOR SPEAK

BH2448, Canada

I just want to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude for the opportunity to collaborate with Enago as a freelance copy editor. Working alongside your esteemed team has been a rewarding experience that I cherish deeply. From the moment I first got a congratulatory message from Enago with an offer on 20 August 2021, the journey has been one of continuous growth and learning.

I met with a diverse array of manuscripts in terms of style, English proficiency, and technical complexity. It's commendable how Enago's commitment to maintaining a high standard of English among non-native authors shines through, even when dealing with the occasional exceptionally challenging manuscript.

It's an honor to contribute to the narrative of positive partnerships that Enago so diligently fosters

“The Soul of India: A Journey from Freedom to Wisdom.”

Would you rather be a tiny elephant or a giant hamster?
I'd choose to be a tiny elephant. Being small would allow me to explore and squeeze into places inaccessible to others, which is an appealing prospect.

Favorite fruit(s): Mango, with its succulent freshness and delectable taste, needs no explanation
